Centrally located on the Peninsula, this beauty is ideal for those commuting to San Francisco and or Silicon Valley. It lies just minutes from major freeways and airports making it perfectly convenient.

This fabulous two bedroom townhome boasts an open and bright floor plan that offers a superb setting for everyday living and entertaining. Bamboo flooring greets you as you step foot into the home adding elegance and charm as the natural light bounces gleefully around the room. Soaring ceilings expand the home giving it an inviting atmosphere anyone would love.

A gorgeous living room with sliders to the outdoor private deck and warming fireplace makes this space perfect for entertaining or curling up in the winter with a good book and hot cocoa.

The spacious dining area serves as a wonderful place for dinner parties or intimate meals flaunting warm neutral tones, splendid lighting and open view to the kitchen and living room keeping you in touch with family or friends at all times.

If you are looking for a sleek and vibrant kitchen you have most definitely found it here. It is complete with tiled countertops, crisp white cabinetry, and plenty functional space.

On the second level you will find two master suites both with vaulted ceilings, custom cooling wall tones, loads of natural light and bamboo flooring allowing each of these rooms to feel as though you have just stepped foot into your own private getaway making them the most splendid of nighttime retreats.

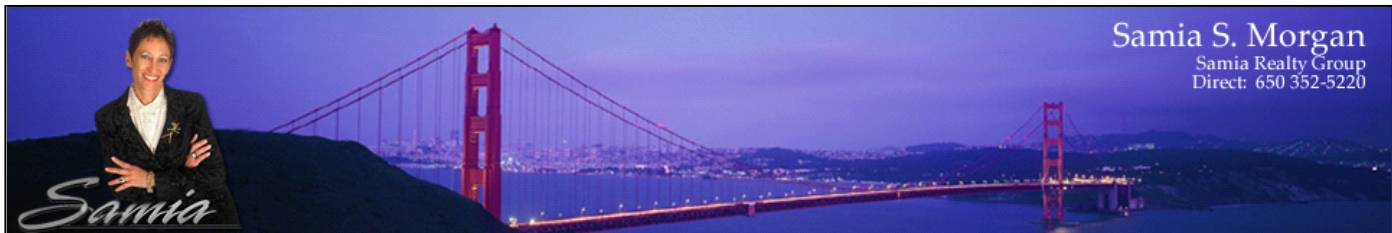

Your expectations will be further exceeded once you see the lush private deck embellished with beautiful vines and eye popping colorful potted plants. This tranquil scene will delight your senses as well as your soul.

As an added bonus this community offers a clubhouse, recreation room, exercise room and pool and spa. You can live like you are on vacation 365 days of the year without ever leaving home!
